

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE IN TUVALU

For a medical emergency in Tuvalu, dial 911.

Please note: The Department of State and U.S. Embassy in Fiji assume no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the entities or individuals whose names appear on the following lists. Inclusion on this list is in no way an endorsement by the Department or the U.S. government. Names are listed alphabetically, and the order in which they appear has no other significance. The information on the list is provided directly by the local service providers; the Department is not in a position to vouch for such information.

There is only one hospital in Tuvalu, the Princess Margaret Hospital in Funafuti. Other facilities include two health centers in Funafuti and eight health centers on the outer islands. Consultations are free for Tuvaluan citizens at the public hospital and health centers. Foreigners will need to pay a fee. Emergency evacuations normally require a medevac to Fiji on the next available commercial flight or by charter flight.
